Dear James:

I am writing to congratulate you on your recent appointment to the Board for Contractors. This appointment shows that Governor McDonnell has absolute confidence in your ability to help us lead Virginia toward a more prosperous future.

As you know, Governor McDonnell and I are working hard to find solutions to the challenges facing our state, but we cannot do that alone. Your willingness to serve the people of Virginia in this way is an important part of our effort to build a better Virginia.

Congratulations again on your appointment and many thanks for the knowledge and dedication you will bring to this endeavor. If I can ever be of service to you, please feel free to let me know.

Very Truly Yours,
